

Carmine Perri Assumes Leadership Role in Professional Association for Elder and Special Needs Law Attorneys

Berlin, CT - May 7, 2013: Carmine Perri, a partner of and trial attorney for the law firm CzepigaDaly, has been elected Vice President of the Connecticut Chapter of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys (NAELA) for 2013-2014. NAELA is a professional association of over 4,200 attorneys who are dedicated to improving the quality of legal services provided to seniors and people with special needs. NAELA members assist their clients with public benefits, probate and estate planning, guardianship/conservatorship, and health and long-term care planning.

Focusing on issues relevant to elder and special needs law, Perri will help to develop innovative plans and programs to benefit seniors and people with disabilities.

“I am happy to be involved in shaping policy for the two groups that are profoundly in need of advocacy and legal representation,” said Perri. “And I am honored to represent NAELA, an organization devoted to assisting its members with the very best legal services.”

Perri is a member of the CT Trial Lawyers Association, the CT Bar and Greater Bridgeport Bar Associations, and is on the Probate Practice Book advisory committee. He was also selected, for 2 years in a row, as the only New England elder law “Rising Star” by New England Super Lawyers Magazine, a designation recognizing the top up-and-coming attorneys in New England who are 40 years old or younger.
